The Polish Institute in Tel Aviv offers intensive course: "Polish language in business"

Why choose us?

We have a long tradition of successfully teaching the Polish language. Our teachers are experienced, dynamic and full of ideas. We use a hands on method to teach "The Polish language in Polish". Our students can see the progress even after few lessons. We focus on the development of communication and contact with the spoken language.

Why intensive course "Polish language in business":

We offer a special course addressing business needs. The main purpose of the course is to acquaint students with the basic vocabulary of everyday life, courtesy phrases and vocabulary related to business. In particular we focus on communication skills. We encourage our students to become familiar with the spoken language. We guarantee small classes with the maximum 15 people. That creates a friendly atmosphere, helps to concentrate on studies and, what is the most important, makes the contact between the teacher and the students more intense.

Description of the course:

The course provides 7 meetings, per 4 lesson hours (7x4 lesson hours = 28 lesson hours per course), meetings are held on Sundays every two weeks.
